NASW CODE OF ETHICS SUMMARY

The Code identifies core values on which social work's mission is based, summarizes ethical principles that reflect the profession's core values, establishes a set of specific ethical standards that guide social work practice, and provides the basis on which the public can hold a practitioner accountable. As a new member, you will receive a full copy of the Code of Ethics. The Code is available online in its entirety at socialworkers.org/pubs/code.

AFFIRMATION OF THE NASW CODE OF ETHICS

I hereby affirm and agree that I will abide by the Code of Ethics of the National Association of Social Workers and agree to submit to professional review proceedings for any alleged violation of the same in accordance with NASW bylaws. I further understand that falsification of the contents of this application, conviction of a felony, or revocation of social work licensure will be grounds for rejection and/or termination of my Association membership and revocation of any and all benefits resulting therefrom.

Signature _____ Date _____

NASW reserves the right to determine membership in keeping with Association principles and policies.

You must sign the Affirmation of the Code of Ethics to ensure prompt activation of your membership.

MEMBERSHIP DESCRIPTIONS AND REQUIREMENTS

Regular Full Member applicants must hold a BSW or MSW from a Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) accredited or recognized social work degree program, or a PhD/DSW in social work or social welfare.

Student Member applicants must be matriculating in a CSWE accredited social work degree program. NASW student members and eligible transitional members may apply for discounted professional liability insurance for student field placement and/or for the first two years of professional practice. Eligibility for the Doctoral Student Membership category is limited to (4) years over the lifetime of membership, not necessarily to be continuous.

Associate Member applicants have a professional interest in, or are supportive of, the issues addressed by, or the client populations served by, the social work profession. Associate members may not hold national or chapter elective office. After five years of continuous membership, associate members are granted the right to vote in national or chapter elections.

APPLYING FOR INSURANCE

Insurance coverage must be obtained and purchased separately. Continuous membership with NASW is necessary when renewing professional liability insurance policies annually through NASW Assurance Services' programs. To apply for professional liability insurance, visit www.naswassurance.org. For term life, long-term, disability, or accident protection insurance, call 866.591.8267.
